The Faerie Houses wall calendar reveals a magical world of handcrafted faerie castles and cottages, fanciful fairy retreats and sanctuaries, and habitable hobbit hideaways. Celebrated environmental artist Sally J. Smith builds these exquisite creations from materials found in the wild. Each house begins as a collection of bark, twigs, mosses, and stones and is finished with touches of fragile blossoms, ferns, and butterfly wings to add to their ethereal beauty. When complete, the houses are placed in a natural setting so perfectly suited that they seem surely to have been crafted by fairy hands. A year of fantastic faerie houses on your wall. About the Author Sally J. Smith was a professional watercolor artist and children's book illustrator for more than 20 years before turning her talents to environmental sculptures. Her faerie houses and Eartherals echo the beauty of a special place or moment in time. Smith creates a visual record of a piece at its completion, and whenever possible, after the sculpture is photographed, it is left where it was made for the nature spirits to enjoy. She lives in the Adirondacks, where resources for her magical creations abound.
