Good but could be better.By William Lee MathewsI have an earlier version and this one was better but it lacked some important information like Knights Crosses were issued marked 900. I have one that was awarded in 1940. It could have more detail and say something what o watch out for in faked medals.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. good workBy Roy WebsterNice reference. The quality of the illustrations are not what they should be for such a book. To fully appreciate the work one. Needs to be a funding on the grading of medals....perhaps a detailed section on medal grading. Should be included or this could be another book? 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. final edition of this classic By T. Petteys This classic guide has been updated with the addition of many colour images to complement the b/w photographs from the Dr K. G. Klietmann Berlin Archive which illustrate both the obverse and reverse of only 100% original pre 1945 awards; as well as now including award certificates and documents, mostly in colour. Further additions include images of excessively rare awards and some superb unique presentation documents. All with a newly revised price guide. Author signed, special 500 Numbered limited Edition Size: 10" in x 8" in. 800 images 400 pages. Deluxe hand-sewn binding, archival paper. Laminated quality colour hardback cover with additional dust-wrapper
