There are color pictures and easy to follow guides.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Cool Book!!By AngieGreat book on all the Saturday Morning collectibles we all grew up with. I would suggest it to other buyers.6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Great TV Memory Jogger from the 60's thru 80's !By Irvin GoodmanVery nice 224 page book with about 40 very large, full color, sharp photos and 750 large black and white photos. A brand new reference, published in 2000. Features a very complete table of contents with more than 200 entries. Topics cover from Addams Family, Banana Splits, Beetlejuice and Casper, to Scooby-Doo, Shari Lewis, Thunderbirds, and Underdog. Background information is provided for each topic and prices are up-to-date. A great reference for this topic.

Zoinks! Toys and other collectibles from Saturday morning kids programs are as yummy as a couple of fresh Scooby Snacks! This encyclopedia of 1960s to 1980s kids show collectibles will be a hot seller among Baby Boomer and Generation X collectors—the two age groups who are most actively buying and selling these hot pop-culture items today. This encyclopedia will become a must-have reference book for these hobbyists' libraries. It features memorabilia from such classic toons as Scooby-Doo, The Flintstones, The Jetsons, Bugs Bunny, Tweety, Taz, The Roadrunner, H.R. Pufnstuf, Josie and the Pussycats, Yogi Bear, The Archies and Hong Kong Phooey. If the show was on Saturday morning, you'll find it here, complete with great photos and accurate, current values. -Boomer and Generation X collectors. -Hot hobby area. -First guide to cover subject. -Nearly 1,000 photos and more than 3,500 listings.
