5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Good informational bookBy Michael D. HornbuckleThis book is a great start to a novice collector like me. It covers the lower end od the spectrum that you are likely to find at yardsales and flea markets.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. would have like to see more detail information and prices for jewelry ...By CustomerExpected more from the book.would have like to see more detail information and prices for jewelry sold by avon for example,other than a page saying this is avon.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Costume Jewelry BookBy Bobbie L. TurnerThis is another fine book for my collection. I re-sell jewelry as I find it. The book has colorful photos, pricing and more. It is a big help.

This book will teach any collector to identify the company that produced that enchanting piece of costume jewelry. Arranged alphabetically for the reader's convenience, the book highlights jewelry from 24 companies that is easily found and affordable. Home party plan Emmons, Sarah Ann Coventry, and Judy Lee; door-to-door Avon including Elizabeth Taylor and Kenneth Jay Lane designs; Monet, Napier, BSK, Art, Marvella, Western Germany, Gerry, Park Lane, B. David, Cathe, Dodds; the butterflies of La Roco; the whimsicals from JJ; and Les Bernard, Lisner, and Celebrity are all included in this beautiful book, which presents almost 400 full-color photographs. Tips on field identification and characteristics of the companies are included.

This book truly "sparkles" (like the author's name) and would make an ideal gift for costume jewelry fans. Thousands of jewelry items are illustrated in hundreds of color photographs and are complemented by captions that include descriptions and values. About the Author Marcia Brown published her first book, Unsigned Beauties of Costume Jewelry, in 2000. She is the host and co-writer of the award-winning Venture Entertainment books-on-tape series Hidden Treasures: A Collector's Guide to Antique Vintage Jewelry. She is a frequent contributor to the Vintage Fashion Costume Jewelry newsletter. An antique and vintage jewelry historian, lecturer, and collector, Brown also provides private consultations for many dealers, mall owners, and collectors.
