This is the second revised edition of Dr. George Barton Cutten's landmark 1948 book The Silversmiths of North Carolina. Lists 273 silversmiths with a biographical sketch of each based on extensive use of primary and secondary sources. It includes 447 black-and-white illustrations of silver pieces and marks, a revised introduction, an increased number of notes, appendixes not in the earlier editions, and a complete name and subject index.

About the Author Mary Reynolds Peacock received a B.A. from UNC-Greensboro and a M.A. from North Carolina State University. From 1970 to 1981 she served as an editor in the Historical Publications Section, Office of Archives and History, NC Department of Cultural Resources.
