By Dr Anup K Das Renowned stamp designer and philatelic specialist C.R. Pakrashi has written this authoritative book on history of stamp designing and stamp production in India since independence. This book contains description and images of several commemorative stamps of historical significance covering Indian arts, cultural practices, institutions, organizations, personalities and inventions. Author has designed 56 commemorative stamps during his artistic career. He describes many of his creation in this book. This is a helpful book for philatelic fans and postal stamp collectors in India and other parts of the world, to identify valuable philatelic contributions from Indian Postal department.

This is India's first authoritative book on stamp making. The author describes his first-hand experiences with all stages of production of the stamp, right from conception to final execution and printing. He steadfastly focuses on designing which plays the most vital and important role in the entire process. The book also gives a graphic account of history and evolution of postage stamps in the world in general and in India in particular. Simultaneously he offers a glimpse into the glorious chapters of Indian history. The book will be of interest not only to philatelists, but also to the public at large as well as students and historians.
