

#File Name: 0875884504144 pages | File size: 63.Mb

Download PDF

Read Online

Rebecca Ann Rupp

DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

[Ebook free] Treasury of Barbie Doll Accessories: 1961-1995

Treasury of Barbie Doll Accessories: 1961-1995

Rebecca Ann Rupp : Treasury of Barbie Doll Accessories: 1961-1995 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Treasury of Barbie Doll Accessories: 1961-1995:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A good book, but I wish the author would have dug a little deeper..By LucyI was happy to see that the book includes the Barbie toy vehicles I had when I was young. That was pretty good, but I felt that the collections the author had listed so far were incomplete. It just seems like the author is mostly focusing on the stuff from the 60, 70s, and some 80s. I would have liked for her to delve on more into the 90s collections as well, meaning I would like have to see her lists more Barbie dreamhomes, playsets, etc from that era. I was amazed that she included the Skipper Pizza Hut Party playset, but chose to omit Barbie's Domino's Pizza Party set. That doesn't make sense to me.I just wish I could find a really good book that could list extensively the Barbie playsets, vehicles, dreamhouses, etc from the 90s era, but this book is the closest thing I could find and it just doesn't cut it for me. I want to also get the second edition of this book to see if there is anything new or any improvisations, but I can see that it has a few pages than the first edition book. I am feeling a bit skeptical right now.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. This book is like a catalog of Barbie toys. It brings back wonderful memories. The photos in this book is tops,,14 of 14 people found the following review helpful. An Asset to Accessories CollectorsBy BridgetUpon opening this guide, Rupp demonstrates immediately why it is so essential to have this book in your library. From the Table of Contents page, all the way through to the Epilogue, Rupp presents the reader with 412 of the clearest, most colorful photos of Barbie doll accessories made from 1961-1995. With each picture, a caption is provided describing these treasures with dates they were copyrighted, and other interesting tidbits that some of us have forgotten (i.e. Sear's exclusive, working escalators, even product I.D. numbers). Cases, houses, paper dolls, and colognes are covered. There's enough here to provide any child or fan of the 70's and 80's with lots of opportunities to reminisce and learn. Rupp has done a fantastic job. One look through this book will have you exclaiming, "Wow! I had that!" An excellent source of entertainment and education.

Barbie collectors must have and know everything about Barbie doll and her accessories! Keepsake Barbie doll ornaments, doll houses, cars, boats, carry cases, paper dolls, puzzles, records, plus a wealth of other Barbie friends accessories made from 1961 to 1995 are pictured, described, and valued. Tips on creating and preserving an award-winning collection. 417 spectacular full color photos. 144 pages.

About the AuthorRebecca Ann Rupp has actively been involved with Barbie dolls and accessories since she received her first Barbie doll at the age of four. She is not only an avid collector of Barbie dolls and accessories, but is also a modern collector of toys and dolls. Rebecca has shared her Barbie expertise through club membership, slide presentations, programs, seminars, workshops at conventions and through various news interviews. An immediate past officer and member of the UFDC Derby City Doll Club of Kentucky, Rebecca designed the club's logo. In 1988, Derby City Doll Club hosted their Region 8 Conference, "Vive les Bebes" at which time they sponsored Rebecca's first exhibit, "Welcome to Barbie-town U.S.A."; the appellation she gave her collection at the age of nine. The convention report in Doll Castle News magazine included this popular exhibit. In addition, Rebecca served as chairperson of the "Fashionable Barbie Doll Luncheon". She was editorial assistant and staff writer for "Vive les Bebes" souvenir book, as well as contributing writer of articles published by various other doll publications. Nationally known as a dealer and appraiser of modern collectible dolls, Rebecca has served in the competition room at the National Barbie Doll Convention and is on her way to becoming a judge. Print and television media have interviewed her on various Barbie topics.