of 1 people found the following review helpful. Highly RecommendedBy ElmerA must-have for the 20th Century Stamp Geek. Engaging format, well researched and well written. The political background of each issue is fascinating.

Continuing Griffith's previous volume, United States Stamps 1922-26, this book treats the remainder of the stamps published during the administrations of presidents Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover. Since their publication, the Griffith books have become the definitive study of the stamps of this period, and treat the political reasons for their issue as well as the stamp production and varieties. Airmail collectors will also find interest in the historical treatment of the trans-continental route, contract air mail, and the Lindbergh flight and subsequent developments in transporting mail. A must for any serious philatelic library.

Another superb in-depth examination of the fourth bureau issue and the commemorative stamps of the period between 1927 and 1932. Well illustrated. -- James Lee, Philatelic Literature Catalog. In this volume, we see a triumph of the rotary press, ...the interesting Kansas-Nebraska overprints, the artistic Washington Bicentennial issue, the ever popular 5c Beacon and the Graf-Zeppelin air mail stamps ... from an authoritative and knowledgeable expert. --Peter Balner, Verisell Stamp Boutique, Fountain Hills, AZ. A companion to his earlier United States Stamps 1922-26, the current volume ... belongs in the library of every collector of United States Stamps. Two thumbs up for this one. --Rodney A. Juell, The United States Specialist, July 2001. About the Author Gary Griffith collected United States stamps for more than 30 years, and specialized in the stamps of the Series of 1922. He is a former editor of the United States Specialist, and has contributed to a number of stamp publications, including the Essay-Proof Journal, Linn's Stamp News, and Scott Stamp Monthly. His competitive exhibit, "The 2 Washington 1922," won 10 gold medals in United States competitions between 1988 and 2000, and was exhibited internationally in Tokyo in 1991 and in Paris in 1999. A journalist by profession, his non-philatelic articles have been published in the New York Times, the Boston Globe, the National Law Journal, and many other periodicals.
