Much more complete and comprehensive than some of the other Italian Glass booksBy Antique AddictMuch more complete and comprehensive than some of the other Italian Glass books. It was recommended to be that I purchase a book by Leslie Pina, which I did and although the photos were there with brief descriptions, in my opinion it was lackluster. This book however, covers all the bases, is much more thorough and complete. In my personal opinion, this book should part of anyone's reference library whether they are really into mid-century Italian glass much or not. A tip of the hat to a book well done. Thank you for this opportunity.1
