The pages have graph lines so you can draw out dimensions and piping isometrics if necessary. It is also great for just writing your thoughts if you choose to do so. I like it so much I purchased another one and will buy any I find at a reasonable price! I would highly suggest you pick one up and keep track of your life!

Hit the road with a journal that is perfect for making vehicle maintenance notes or writing about life in the fast lane. Featuring a durable cover and flexible binding, this journal can go anywhere from your glove compartment to your
