Sterling silver flatware continues to be highly collectible, especially as family collections are passed down to each new generation. In this new standard to sterling silver, noted antique expert Mark Moran lists thousands of sets of sterling, complete with identifying photos and their current prices. He covers pieces from all the major American manufacturers, as well as selected English and European manufacturers in this essential guide to prominent silversmiths, manufacturers and patterns. He also provides an overview of what to look for, condition reports, history and descriptions.

About the AuthorMark F. Moran is an author and antiques dealer specializing in vintage folk art, Americana, prints and paintings. In addition to compiling reference books on antique American and European furniture, metalwares, clocks and sterling silver flatware, he has written for numerous national antiques magazines covering shows and auctions.
