Watertown (WI) (Postcard History Series)

W.F. Jannke III : Watertown (WI) (Postcard History Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Watertown (WI) (Postcard History Series):

The ever-changing face of Watertown is captured in this fascinating collection of postcard images dating from the early 1900s to the present. The postcards in this book come primarily from the extensive collection of W. F. Jannke

III. He has presented an entertaining history of the city, from the changing face of its business district to the different forms of recreation once enjoyed by its inhabitants. Other images highlight scenes of calamitous events, most notably the 1914 cyclone. All will find this work to be a most engaging guide to the way life was lived in Watertown in "the good old days."

About the Author A lifelong resident of Watertown, W. F. Jannke III is the author of four other local history books, all published by Arcadia: Jefferson County, Wisconsin; Watertown, Wisconsin: 1836-1936; Then Now Watertown, Wisconsin; and Watertown: A History.
