Just the book I needed.By Diane WThis is a great book for the identification of my 1960's bear. Good one to have. It has good pictures, even though they are black and white.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Identification and Price Guide to Winnie the Pooh

Collectible By A Customer This book is a must have for the avid Winnie the Pooh collector. Pages 8-47 are just on stuffed characters. It starts with very early plush characters and continues onward with newer ones. The next section, entitled "Ceramic Pooh and Friends", encompasses a variety of things. For example, cups, banks, plates, bookends, cookie jars, snow globes, musicals, picture frames, and figurines. This section also has plastic figurines and Christmas Winnie the Pooh items. There are pictures of each item along with a description underneath or beside it. The excerpts below each picture tell who or where the item was made, the year it was released, a detailed description, and how much each item is worth. Overall, this book is very useful and easy to use. It is very helpful in showing how much an item is worth. Any Winnie the Pooh fan will enjoy this in their collection.

More Winnie the Pooh and friends collectibles are featured in this special second volume. Identify and date your Pooh, Eeyore, Rabbit, Piglet, Kanga, Roo, Owl, and Christopher Robin plush characters, ceramic figurines, and Christmas related items. Hundreds of collectibles from: Disney, Sears, Gund, Merrythought, Knickerbocker, R. John Wright, and many others. A must for every Pooh enthusiast! 250 photos. 128 pages.

About the Author Carol lives in Washington State with her husband and two young boys. She has a doctorate degree in Zoology and works as a Fish Biologist for the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife. Her interest in Pooh items began as a child, when the World of Pooh was given to her by her parents, and has continued when extra time has allowed. She is most grateful for the wonderful friends she has met while pursuing this hobby. Other interests include water sports, gardening, and raising dalmatians.
